Blaze in Seaboard Air Line Pain Shops, Just Rebuilt After Last Year's Fire.

A VERY SENSATIONAL TRIAL

The First Harbor Defense Squadron Yet Formed Will Assemble in Hampton Roads.

NORFOLK, VA., Feb. 8.—The timely NORFOLK, VA., Feb. 8.—The timely discovery of a blaze in the paint shop of the Seaboard Air Line shops at an early hour this morning averted a second confogration at that great plant within a year. The fire last May completely destroyed the shops and they have just been retuilt. The blaze last night did only a few hundred dollars' damage, but fast work was required to prevent the inflammable material in the paint shop from causing another bad fire.

SENSATIONAL TRIAL.

On account of the absence in Baitimore of Colonel J. Hull Davidson, manager of the Atlantic Hotel, who is a material witness against L. Waserman in the trial of the latter for puriolining meat from Aaron Marx, was postponed today. Wasserman is a wealthy butcher, but Marx had him arrested for stealing meat from his stall. The case is highly sensational.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

A Field Day for Agriculture in Prince William.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)
MANASSAS, VA., Feb. 8.—The farmers' institute held under the auspices of the State Board of Agriculture Friday was a marked success. Commissioner Kolner and his speakers were escorted to the Nicol Hall by a committee of which Judge J. B. R. Thornton was chalrman. Rev. Dr. Hanner, of the Presbytefian Church, pronounced the invocation, and a choir of school children sang "America".

The chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, George C. Round, gave an address of welcome, which was responded nadiress of welcome, which was responded to by Hon. William H. Eggleston, of Culpeper, who snoke of having soldiered on these historic plains in the Seventh Virginia, and of his surprise at the rapid and substantial growth of the town of Manassas. He then introduced the speakers—Hon. G. W. Kolner, Commissioner of Agriculture: Mr. S. F. Barber, of Harrisburg, Pa.: Prof. S. B. Helges, of the Batter experimental farm, and Prof. Ferneyhough, the State veterinarian at Bireksburg. Sessions were held both morning and evening, and the young farrpers piled the speakers with questions of a practical character, which elicited great interest and much practical information.

At the close of the institute, Farmer Henser, of Haymarket, offered the following: Resolved by this farmers' institute of Northern Virginia That we urge upon the Legislature the establishment of the new "Norma School for Girls" at Ma-new "Normat School for Gris at ani-nassas, which we regard as in every re-spect a convenient and suitable location. Judge Charles E. Nicol addressed the institute by invitation on the resolution, He called attention to be fact that Northern Virginia paid a large share of Northern Virginia paid a large share of the taxes of the State, and that while the Valey, the Southwest, the South-side, Central Virginia and Tidewater all had State institutions, not a dollar had ever been expended by the Common-wealth north of the line of the Chesa-peake and Ohio Raliroad. He referred to the convenient railroad facilities at Manassas from every part of the State to our high and healthful location, and to the great interest taken by Manassas people in the cause of education. He said the veterans of the war throughout the State were endorsing the proposition. Virginia, for historical reasons, ought to erect a monument on this lofty table-land in sight of the world, and he knew of no nobler monument than the one nounced by Chairman Eggleston as unan imously carried. A vote of thanks was given to Commissioner Kolner and his beiners and the institute adjourned.

Plea That Court Which Sentenced Kennedy Is No More

(Sneelal to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., Feb. 8.—Counsel for John Kennedy, the man who was recently sentenced to be hanged for wrecking a train on the Norfolk and Western, near Greenville, went to Lexington Saturday for the purpose of applying for a writ of Inheas corpus. The writ has been granted by Judge S. It. Letcher, of the Circuit Court, and he will hear argument in the case Tuesday. Three prominent attorneys of this city will argue the case for the defendant. The defense claims that Kennedy was sentenced to be hanged by a court which is not now in existence.

It will be remembered that in Decomber, 1802, Kennedy and a boy by the name of Balley removed the fish-plates, thereby disconnecting the rails, on the Norfolk and Western, Railrond, in this county, wrecking a passenger train and killing the dispiner. Kennedy confessed, was tried and sentenced to be hanged on January 15th, but the Governor respited Kennedy until February 12th, and the gallows has been built and everything is ready to carry out the execution, but the sentiment in favor of communing his sentence is so great that these autorneys have taken up the case and it may be that his neck will yet be saved.

A Dispensary Wanted.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, VA., Feb. 8.—A petition requesting the General Assembly to enact a law providing for a dispensary for thatham has been circulated here and signed by a large number of citizens, some of whom are anti-injuor advocates, but believe a dispensary will be much better than the illicit traine now teing carried on and from which the town is not doriving any revenue. So far the anti-saloon advocates have made no demonstration to oppose the measure, but it is believed the Anti-Saioon League will take the matter in hand.

As it now stands a majority of the voiers are favoring the dispensary, but what effect the anti-saloon people will nave, should they make a fight, remains to be seen.

The distiliers are very much opposed to a dispensary, and, if reports be true, they will exert every influence to defeat the measure.

THE DEDICATION OF WESLEY CHURCH

Three Services Held-An Interesting History-Rev. M. Ashby Jones.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FETERSBUKG, VA., Feb. 8.-Sunday ns a red-letter day in the history of Wesley Methodist Church, the handsome new building being dedicated in the presnce of a largo assemblage. During the day services were held-in the morning and afternoon the Rev. W. H. Atwill, of Danville, preached; in the evening the Rev. R. M. Chandler preached. Both are former pastors of the church. During the dedicatory, service, which was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Atwill, it was announced that the total debt on the new edifice was $1,000, and after subscriptions had been taken up it was found that the debt had more than been wheel out, $1,125 having been subscribed. Concerning the history of the church, it is interesting to recall that in 1844 Wesley Church was organized, and a liftle chapel was, purchased from the Presbyterians, the church term being called "Wesley Chapel." Here the congregation worshipped for thirty-five years, and in 1879, during the pastorato of the Rev. R. M. Chandler, a two-story brick structure was built at the corner of Hallfax and Hickory Streets. In April, 1902, this building was replaced by the present church, which cost $17,000. The main moditorium has a seating-capacity of 2.35, and the building is a handsome structure.

When the work of building the church was begun two years ago, no tunds had been raised; but the zeal and energy of the present pastor, the Rev. J. Thomas, and the co-operation of his congregation have succeeded in raising the necessary funds, and the church to-day is free of debt.

The membership of the church is now 250, a constant increase since 1901, when Mr. Thomas was transferred to the charge here from Greenesvulle county.

At the Y. M. C. A. yesternay a large and attentive audience heard the address of the Rev. Ashby Jones, of Richmond, on the topic, "The Bread of Life." In the vast assemblage were many ladies. are former pastors of the church. During the dedicatory service, which was

CALL ON THE STATE BOARD

The Authorities There Are to Ask for Assistance-Negro Tramp Started Disease.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOYDTON, VA., Feb. 8,-Cornelius
Goode, colored, who lived about two miles north of Skipwith Depot, on the Southern Railroad, died early Saturday southern Malifold, deed early statudary morning of smallpox. Every member of this man's family, consisting of soven, are stricken down with the same disease. The subject is alarming, as it appears that large numbers of negroes have been excessed.

A letter was received here on Saturday from Colonel J. Thomas Goode, who lives in that infected neighborhood, and he says that infected neighborhood, and he says that a good many negroes have been exposed, and that they are under no restraint and go whorever they please. Commonwealth's Attorney Goode told me to-day that he thought the disease had gotten beyond the control of the local substituting and that he had made an anauthorities, and that he had made an ap-peal to the State Board of Health to take authorities, and that he had made an appeal to the State Board of Health to take charge of the matter.

The supervisors will meet here to-day to try and deal with the subject.

The disease has broken out in three localities, namely, Chase City, Milwith and Ferry Hill, near Jeffress Junction.

A negro tramp passed down the Richmond and Mecklenburg Rallroad the last of December with the smallpox on him and strewed it at the various places he stopped at. It is said the tramp claimed to belong to the True Reformers, a benevolent order, and as there were orders of the society at the places he visited, large numbers of the colored people visited him, as the visiting of the sick is one of the requirements of the society.

Judge Barksdale, whose court is appointed for next Monday at this place, has written a letter to Commonwealth's Attorney Goode and Clerk Jamison, notifying them that in consequence of the prevalence of smallpox in the county he will not hold als court on Monday, but that he will hold court later on for such cases as will not require the presense of a jury and witnesses.

Roofs Torn From Large Mills and Other Buildings Damaged. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WELDON, N. C., Feb. 8 .- A severe torado struck We doing considerable damage. The weather was warm and sultry, and the storm came up suddenly and broke with all its fury-rain, wind and thunder-at about 4 o'clock. The knitting mill of the Weldon Cotton Manufacturing Company suffered most. The roof was torn completely from the southwest section, and tin, rafters, sheeting and all were twisted ly from the southwest section, and tin, rafters, sheeting and all were twisted and blown away, landing some forty or fifty feer distant. The goods on the third floor were badly damaged by water, and the machinery is also damaged to a considerable extent. Mr. W. T. Shaw, president of the company, said this morning that it would be impossible to estimate his damage now, but that it would be considerable. Workmen are repairing the damage, and the mix is going right ahead at work as far as it can.

The Carolina Peanut Company also came in for a share of the damage by the great storm. Their factory was unroofed and the metal in it was rolled into a ball by the wind, and carried a distance of seventy-five feet and dumped into a vacant lot.

The water poured in on the stock and did considerable damage.

The Judkins brick building on Washington Avenue was a sufferer. The tin was torn up in front and roved back about one-half the length of the building, The Roanoke News is located on the second floor, and the type and material were given a good soaking, but fortunately the presses and paper stock were not damaged.
